Are You Experienced? by William Sutcliffe
Are You Experienced? showcases what being a backpacker is about. Sutcliffe takes the very worst of experiences for Dave and puts a humorous twist on them. His writing is extremely witty and sharp and I couldn't put this book down. Considering I wasn't looking forward to reading it, I ended up loving it completely.

Are You Experienced? Audiobook | William Sutcliffe ...
Here, as elsewhere, Sutcliffe goes for the quick cheap laugh, without trying harder. Surely Indian classical literature would, for example, offer a simple sentiment as that expressed by Aeschylus -- but Sutcliffe does not seek one out. Are you Experienced ? is a backpacker novel, yet another version of a traveller's travails in India. There are some decent laughs along the way -- a fair number of genuinely amusing scenes, and two or three striking sentences -- but Sutcliffe goes about his ...

William Sutcliffe Books and Book Reviews | LoveReading4Kids
Don't expect high-brow literature here, but if you have ever been to that part of the world, Dave's experiences and Sutcliffe's descriptions of them are dead-on. It will take you back! The book truly captures the low-budget backpacker's experience in India, mainly by pointing out how absurd situations and people can be.
