This Star Trek origami model is designed by Larry Hart and his brother in law Ashgar Malik. Larry taught me how to make it at a London Origami Mini Meeting . There have been several different incarnations of the Enterprise over the course of several series and films and as Larry says, the intent with this design was to create a generic representation, rather than any specific one.

One could be identified as a Defiant only because it was presented in the Star Trek context. The recognition from a photo alone was hardly possible. The other version was shown in a video, This model was obviously simple folded and recognizable. The model embodied rather a schematic representation of Defiant.
